ARTICLE 1 – Organization Name

The name of the organization shall be “LAGUNA HILLS HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC AND COLOR GUARD BOOSTERS ASSOCIATION” (hereinafter referred to as “Music Boosters,” “Association,” “Organization,” and “Board”), 501(3)(c), EIN # 33-0636188.

ARTICLE 2 – Official Address

The official address for the Laguna Hills High School Music Boosters is 25401 Paseo de Valencia, Laguna Hills, CA 92653.

ARTICLE 3 – Objective

The purpose of the Music Boosters is to promote the Laguna Hills High School Music and Color Guard Boosters Association and related group activities by providing financial and moral support deemed appropriate by the music faculty and the membership of the Music Boosters and outside the domain and purpose of the school district revenue. Groups so supported include Marching Band, Color Guard, Winter Guard, Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Jazz Band, Orchestra, Drum Line, and any other instrumental group established at Laguna Hills High School and is hereinafter referred to as “Music Groups” or “Ensembles.” The property of the Music Boosters is irrevocably dedicated to charitable and educational purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this Organization shall ever benefit any Staff, Board member, or any private persons. The Music Boosters will work collaboratively with the district administration, school officials, and the music director in pursuit of these objectives. Music Boosters shall be non-profit and non-partisan.

ARTICLE 4 – General Membership

General membership in the Music Boosters shall be open to any interested person ~~or legal guardian, age 18 or over and is not currently a student in the Saddleback Valley Unified School District~~, who subscribes to the purpose and policies of this Organization. Parents or guardians of students currently enrolled in the music groups are automatically members. ~~and any Other~~ interested persons should contact a Board member ~~to state their desire to be included in the general membership~~. All members are expected to play an active role in organization-sponsored activities to ensure the overall success of the stated purpose of the Organization; all members are expected to actively participate in the many committees necessary to ensure success of the Organization, based on one’s ability. Hereinafter, this description is a “member in good standing.” LHS Instrumental Music students may attend meetings when accompanied by their parent or guardian but will have no voting rights. From time to time, students may be asked to leave the meetings, if matters are to be discussed that are deemed inappropriate by a majority vote of the adult members present. All members in good standing shall have one vote for any vote taken at a Booster meeting and only one vote per family regardless of the number of family members in attendance. Members must be present, in seat, or virtually in attendance to vote.

ARTICLE 5 – Board Members

The Board consists of two functioning groups: Executive Officers and Auxiliary Board Members. Executive Officers are elected annually by the general membership, and the Auxiliary Board members are appointed by the President. Board Members serve for a twelve-month term, beginning July 1 through June 30. The offices of the Board members are as follows:

EXECUTIVE Officers	AUXILIARY Members
President	Auditor
Vice President	Parliamentarian
Secretary	Unit Coordinators (see Article 10)
Treasurer	Instrument & Equipment Manager
Banker	Communications Manager
	Social Media Manager
	Webmaster
	Fundraising Coordinators
	Student Representatives (Section Leaders)

The Board reserves the right to create or eliminate Board positions as deemed necessary to manage the activities during the year to support program objectives. This may occur during the annual nomination process or at any time during the year.

The LHHS Instrumental Music Director shall serve as Advisor to the Board.

No advisor, instructor, coach, or member of the Music Boosters is authorized to commit the Organization to financial commitments, contracts, or agreements without prior vote by the Board.

ARTICLE 8 – Executive Officers and Their Election

Section 1 – Executive Officers

The Executive Officers of this Association shall be the elected Board Members as enumerated in “Article 6 Board Members,” of these bylaws. Each Executive Officer of this Organization shall be a member in good standing.

Section 2 – Nominating Committee

Nominations for Executive Officers shall be made by a nominating committee. The Nominating Committee shall be named at least two (2) months prior to the annual election meeting in May. The Nominating Committee shall serve until the annual election meeting. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of three (3) members with one (1) alternate, all of whom shall be current members of this Organization in good standing who have attended at least three (3) Music Booster meetings of the current school year. Members serve on the Nominating Committee for two (2) consecutive years and may continue beyond this term to fill a vacant position to complete the required number of members. The Nominating Committee shall be announced by the March Board meeting. The President may not serve as a member of the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee will present its slate of officers, selected from the current membership, during the May General Membership Meeting. At the May General Membership meeting, additional nominations must be called for from the floor. Every attempt should be made to include representatives from each Music Group on the slate of officers. A written ballot may be created by the Nominating Committee in the event of a contested position. There will no proxy voting, absentee ballots, or write-in candidates on the ballots. If the Board votes to include Candidate Statement forms for an election, a form will be created by the Nominating Committee and will be published and provided with the ballots. Distribution of any other type of Candidate Statement(s) or campaign material by anyone other than the Nominating Committee shall be grounds for disqualification. The Board at its discretion may appoint a Teller Committee of three (3) people for the purpose of distributing, collecting and counting the written ballots. To the extent possible, no current Board member or Nominating Committee should serve on the Teller Committee.

Section 3 – Criteria for Nominees and Appointees

A nominee or appointee must be an adult who is not currently a student in the Saddleback Valley Unified School District. Elected Executive Officers and appointed Auxiliary members shall be ~~limited to~~ members ~~of the Organization~~ in good standing who have signified their consent to serve if elected or appointed. Nominees for the executive offices of President, VicePresident, Treasurer, Banker, and Secretary shall not be related by blood or marriage or reside in the same household. Should ~~a child of a~~ Board member decide to leave the program and a replacement cannot be found, the Board member is encouraged to continue to serve through the end of the term or until a new person can be appointed.

Section 4 – Election

Election shall be held at the annual election meeting in May. If there is but one nominee for any office, the ballot may be dispensed with and the election held by voice vote.

Section 5 – Terms of Office

Officers shall serve for a term of one (1) year or until their successors are elected. In the event that no successor is elected ~~and the incumbent does not wish to continue the next term~~, the position is declared vacant. Vacant positions will be filled by the Board-elect. Officers are eligible to serve in the same office for two (2) consecutive terms, or ~~longer hold more than one elected or appointed office-~~ ~~unless if~~ the position goes unfilled and the incumbent is willing to continue. ~~Officers~~ All Board members shall assume their duties on July 1.

Section 6 – President-Elect

The President-elect may call meetings of the officers-elect and the Instrumental Music Director as necessary to make plans for the coming year's work.

Section 7 – Office Vacancy

If an office remains unfilled after election, it shall be considered a vacant office to be filled by the Board-elect, and members with less than 30 days of membership may be appointed at the discretion of the Board-elect.

- a. Liaise between the students in all music groups and the Board.
- b. Provide a report to the Board on activities of the students.
- c. Report to the students on Board activities.
- d. Attend all Board meetings and general membership meetings.

ARTICLE 12 – The Board

Section 1 – Composition

The Board shall consist of elected Executive Officers, appointed Auxiliary members, and the Instrumental Music Director. The Instrumental Music Director shall serve solely in an advisory capacity and is neither an Elected Officer nor Auxiliary member.

Section 2 – Authority, Duties, and Responsibilities

During its term, the Board shall be vested with authority over all facets of management and operation of the Music Boosters, which authority it may delegate to Board members at its sole discretion. This authority shall include decisions concerning financial matters and authorization of the payment of bills within the limits of the budget adopted by the general membership, not having the authority to encumber the Association beyond the current fiscal year. All bills should be submitted to the appropriate coordinator for approval before payment. Such action must be ratified at the next Music Booster general meeting and recorded in the minutes. Any invoice from SVUSD requires approval of the Instrumental Music Director. No Board member shall negotiate or engage in consulting services on behalf of the Board without the prior approval of the Instrumental Music Director. Additionally, the Board, in conjunction with the Instrumental Music Director, will be responsible for the decision regarding the purchase of band equipment, loaning of Music Booster property, payment to SVUSD of instructor/music coaches' salaries, fundraising, transportation, and lodging expenses and related activities. The Board can create committees as are deemed necessary to promote the purposes and to carry on the work of the Association and serve until the assignment is completed. The Board shall present a report at meetings of the Association. Outgoing Board members shall be responsible for the effects (e.g., papers, files, CDs, notes, memos, Google docs, etc.) of their offices on or before June 30.

Section 3 – Conflicts

The Board is subject to the Music Booster Bylaws. An Association member shall not be a voting member of this Board while serving as a paid employee of or under contract of the Music Boosters. Conflict of Interest means a conflict, or appearance of a conflict, between the private interests and official responsibilities of a person in a position of trust. Persons in a position of trust include officers and members of the Board. For purposes of this provision, the term "interest" shall include personal interest, interest as a Board member, trustee, or beneficiary of any concern and having an immediate family member related by blood or marriage or member of the same household who hold such an interest in any concern.

No transaction of the Organization shall be voidable by reason of the fact that any officer or member of the Board of the Organization has an interest or is related to a person that has interest in the entity with which the transaction is entered into provided:

- a. The interest of the officer or member of the Board is fully disclosed to the members.
- b. The transaction is duly approved by the Board members not interested or connected as being in the best interests of the Organization.

- c. Payments to the interested officer, Board member of related party are reasonable, and do not exceed fair market value.

An interested officer or member of the Board must remove themselves from voting, discussion and the decision-making process of a contract, transaction, or situation in which there may be a perceived or actual, conflict of interest. However, they may be present to provide clarifying information in such a discussion at the request of the Board unless objected to by any present member of the Board. Anyone in a position to make decisions about spending, who also stands to benefit from that decision, has a duty to disclose that conflict as soon as it arises or when it becomes apparent.

Section 4 – Complaints and Allegations

The Organization encourages complaints, reports, or inquiries about illegal practices or serious violations of the Organization’s policies, including illegal or improper conduct by the Organization itself, by its leaders or others on its behalf. Appropriate subject matter to raise under this policy would include financial improprieties, accounting or audit matters, ethical violations or other similar illegal or improper practices or policies. Complaints, reports or inquiries may be made on a confidential or anonymous basis. They should describe in detail the specific facts. They should be directed to the Organization's President; if the President is implicated in the complaint, report or inquiry, it should be directed to another Executive Board member. The Organization will conduct a prompt, discrete and objective review or investigation. Complainants must recognize that the Organization may be unable to fully evaluate a vague or general complaint, report, or inquiry that is made anonymously.

Section 5 – Miscellaneous

This section contains general guidelines and procedures as well as best practices:

- a. Immediately upon taking office, designated authorized signers (President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary) contact the Organization’s bank to secure their signatures on all checking and savings account signature cards and file with the bank.
- b. Individuals who are related by blood or marriage, or reside in the same household, are prohibited from counting cash or checks for the Organization together.
- c. Authorized signers are prohibited from approving payments for reimbursements submitted by themselves or other individuals 1) to whom they are related by blood or marriage or 2) who reside in the same household.
- d. For purposes of disbursement, if in a given transaction a physical paper check is not a suitable or acceptable form of payment, the Organization at its discretion may use an alternate method available, i.e., debit card, e-check, electronic bank transfer, digital payments systems and apps (e.g., Venmo, PayPal, Zelle, etc.)

ARTICLE 13 – Meetings

Section 1 - General Membership Association Meeting Time and Place

The General Membership or Association meetings of the Music Boosters will be held at LHHS unless otherwise indicated, no less than seven (7) times during the school year. Special meetings may be called by the President or the Instrumental Music Director. General Membership Association meetings shall be conducted according to Robert’s Rules of Order.

Section 2 – Board Meetings

The Board meetings of the Music Boosters will be held monthly at LHHS unless otherwise indicated, and no less than seven (7) times during the school year. The Board shall schedule the day and week for the monthly Board meetings at the beginning of the school year. Special meetings may be called by the Board or as requested by the Instrumental Music Director. When sensitive issues need to be discussed (litigation, discipline, personnel matters, and contract negotiation and/or contract issues requiring confidentiality), the President may call for a closed session meeting of the Board members and the Instrumental Music Director. Based on the topic of the special meeting, guest attendees (if their presence deemed necessary) may be invited by the President. Meeting minutes for any such session will be taken and a general report of any decision(s) or action(s), redacting any sensitive and/or confidential information will be reported out to the membership. Meetings of the Executive Officers shall be held when called by the President or as requested by the Instrumental Music Director. Board meetings shall be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 3 – Attendance

Elected Officers and appointed Auxiliary Board members are expected to attend and participate in all Board, Association, and special meetings.

Section 3 – Removal from the Board

Should a Board member fail to attend three (3) consecutive meetings without adequate excuse or when a Board member is not fulfilling the responsibilities of their position as prescribed in these bylaws or standing rules, or engages in conduct which the Board determines to be injurious to the Organization or its purposes, the Board may, by simple majority affirmative vote, take such action as it determines appropriate, which may include removal of the Board member. Any Board member may be removed with simple majority vote of the quorum present at a special meeting called for this purpose, provided however that prior to the removal from the Board, the affected Board member is given notice in writing, printed or electronic, of the intended removal at least seven (7) days prior to such meeting. The Board member shall be informed of the general nature of the charges and given an opportunity to appear at the meeting to answer such charges.

Section 4 – Vacating of Office/Position

Each Board Member, upon expiration of the term of office/position shall turn over all records, books, and other material pertaining to the office/position to the newly elected/appointed Board member. In case of resignation or termination, all records, books, and other material pertaining to the office/position shall be turned over to the President, and all funds belonging to the Association shall be returned to the Treasurer, without delay.

ARTICLE 14 – Quorum

Section 1 – Board Quorum

To conduct business at any Board meeting, a simple majority consisting of Elected Officers and Auxiliary Board Members must be present. Any action taken by the Board is to be approved by a simple majority of those present at that meeting.

Section 2 – General Membership Quorum

Any action taken by a General Membership Meeting would be upon a simple majority of those present, except where otherwise herein specified.

ARTICLE 15 – Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Association, its assets remaining after payment of, or provision for payment of, all debts and liabilities of this Association shall be distributed to the LHHS Music Department if it is then in existence and exempt under section 501(c)(3); but if not, then in existence or exempt, to another organization which serves students of LHHS, is organized, and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code.

ARTICLE 16 – Amendments to Bylaws

Additions or amendments to the bylaws must be presented in writing to the members one month prior to being voted on by the general membership. Any change in the bylaws must have the approval of the simple majority of the membership in attendance at the general membership meeting to become effective.

These bylaws were adopted as amended by Laguna Hills High School Instrumental Music Boosters on ~~December 10, 2020~~.
